NRC APPOINTS ALFRED SANCHEZ RESIDENT INSPECTOR AT COMANCHE PEAK STEAM ELECTRIC STATION

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission has appointed Alfred Sanchez resident inspector at Comanche Peak Steam Electric Station, a nuclear power plant near Glen Rose, Texas. He joins senior resident inspector Don Allen.

Mr. Sanchez earned a bachelor's degree in nuclear engineering in 1993 at Texas A&M University and a master's degree in industrial engineering in 1999, also from Texas A&M.

Mr. Sanchez joined the NRC in April 2000 as an operations engineer. Prior to joining the NRC, he worked as a senior operator at the Texas A&M Nuclear Science Center's TRIGA research reactor. Mr. Sanchez and his family reside in Fort Worth, Texas.
