NRC TO DISCUSS INDUSTRY'S POST-FUKUSHIMA EFFORTS SEPT. 21 IN ROCKVILLE, MD.

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission staff will meet with nuclear power plant industry representatives on Wednesday, Sept. 21, to discuss the industry's plans and proposed actions to address the lessons learned from the Fukushima Dai-ichi nuclear accident.

The meeting will run from 1-3:30 p.m. in the Commission Meeting Room on the first floor of One White Flint North, 11555 Rockville Pike in Rockville. The NRC staff will consider the industry's feedback as they prepare a proposal to prioritize recommendations from the agency's Near-Term Task Force. The Commission has asked the staff to provide its prioritization proposal by Oct. 3.

Additional information regarding the meeting, including expected participants and a more detailed agenda, will be available on the NRC's public meeting schedule. The meeting will be webcast, and a toll-free teleconference will also be available. Members of the public may ask questions of the NRC staff before the meeting ends; those interested in teleconference information should contact Amy Bonaccorso at RST01_F.Resource@nrc.gov for instructions.
