2020-000019	Sarah Akerson		According to a Wikipedia article, on February 26, 1982, the San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station (SONGS) Unit 1 was temporarily closed, due to seismic concerns. I am requesting any and all documents related to this event, and which might include: Who determined there was a seismic risk? How and why was it determined there was a seismic risk? On what date was the risk determined? On what date was the NRC notified of the risk? How did Southern California Edison (SCE), other plant owners, and any additional parties of interest remediate the risk? Was the public made aware of this risk and of	10/16/2019
