

AGENDA

Title: Transformation at the NRC – Sustaining Progress as a Modern, Risk-Informed Regulator

Purpose: To update the Commission on the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's transformation activities that support mission excellence.

Scheduled: June 1, 2022
10:00 am

Duration: Approx. 1.5 hours

Location: Commissioners' Conference Room, 1st Floor OWFN

Participants: Presentation

Staff Panel 60 mins.*

Daniel Dorman, Executive Director for Operations

Topic:

- Opening remarks on NRC transformation efforts

Aida Rivera-Varona, Acting Deputy Assistant for Operations, Office of the Executive Director for Operations

Topic:

- Measuring progress and initial responses to external survey

Tim Mossman, Acting EMBARK Venture Studio Managing Director, Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation

Topic:

- Update on MAP-X module development and deployment

Caylee Kenny, Project Manager, Materials Rulemaking and Project Management Branch, Office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards

Topic:

- Update on improvements and successes in the Rulemaking program

Rebecca Richardson, Chief, Intelligence Liaison & Threat Assessment Branch, Division of Security Operations, Office of Nuclear Security and Incident Response

Topic:

- Applying the riskSMART framework to NRC's security oversight programs (e.g., Reasonable Assurance of Protection Time (RAPT), the force-on-force (FOF) inspection program, and the cyber security program)

Jeffery Wood, Reliability and Risk Analyst, Probabilistic Risk Assessment Branch, Office of Research

Topic:

- SPAR-dash, a risk-informed mobile application for applying risk insights to NRC regulatory programs

Antonios Zoulis, Branch Chief, PRA Oversight Branch,
Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation

Topic:

- NRC's streamlined review process for low safety significance issues using the Risk-Informed Process for Evaluations (RIPE)

Abby Olarte, Senior IT Program Manager, Financial System Branch, Office of the Chief
Financial Officer

Topic:

- eBilling Innovation

Commission Q & A

30 mins.

Discussion – Wrap-Up

5 mins.